BACK FOR THE 10TH YEAR!

The program offers a bag of locally-grown fresh produce for $10 (a $15+ value) throughout the growing season. It's pay-as-you-go, not a subscription, so it's a great value with no need for a commitment—just a little advance planning. Produce is ordered by GrowNYC at wholesale prices from farmers in New York and New Jersey.

Signing up is simple: pay $10 cash in advance on the “Pickup Thursday” the week or so before you want a bag of produce at our prime pickup site, Goddard Riverside Older Adult Center, between 1 – 3 pm. Then come get your produce the following pickup day.
